ABC Enforcement Targeted Enforcement Details

Continuing efforts to restrict youth access to alcohol and keep communities safe, enforcement officials from Kentucky's Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) conducted a Targeted Enforcement Details (TED) in areas adjacent to the campus of University of Kentucky on September 17, Western Kentucky University on October 20, and Morehead University on Friday, Oct. 26.

The TEDs resulted in over 120 citations and five arrests.

"The number of citations issued through these TEDs demonstrates the need for alcohol enforcement strategies. ABC Enforcement prioritizes combating youth access to alcohol, in addition to enforcing all laws, and will continue to work across Kentucky to maintain compliance with alcohol laws and regulations," said Josh Crain, Assistant Director of Enforcement.

The Targeted Enforcement Detail is a proactive enforcement strategy that not only allows law breakers to be cited, but also help to prevent youth access to alcohol due to the presence of ABC enforcement. The details focus on point of sale, third-party transactions, fraudulent ID's, drug violations and possession of alcohol by minor violations. TEDs are usually conducted in collaboration with other law enforcement agencies at events where there is a high concentration of minors along with alcohol being sold or consumed.

ABC Investigators focus on alcohol violations freeing other law enforcement agencies to focus on traffic, crowd control and other essential law enforcement duties.
